

Dismantling Racism – St. Mary's – 2018

Join us for a series of discussions about our community, racism and advantage.

Three free viewings and facilitated discussion of the film “13th”. The film is titled after the Thirteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, which freed the slaves and prohibited slavery, with the exception of slavery as punishment for a crime. It explores the intersection of race, justice and mass incarceration in the United States.
